October 28 Meeting

Our guest this morning was George Steel. George is a missionary and is in his new home at Hawthorne.

New member John “Buff” Raimer said he had to deal with an internet issue before the meeting....it seems that, in his words “ somebody took a picture of me and put it on the internet”. He insisted on showing us the evidence:

“rim shot”

Fred is looking for volunteers to help run the concession stand at little Rain Lake Park for a ball tourney. Saturday November 6, 9AM Kiwanis will have a table and hand out candy at “Boo on the Boulevard, Saturday October 30...6-9PM. Volunteer help is needed. Show up at 5. Volunteers can park behind the Hatch Realty office on Lawrence Blvd.

Santa says he has lined up an “old timey” fire truck for the Christmas parade. The Key and Builders clubs will be asked to be part of his parade entry. Jessie will see about getting a dalmatian coach dog to make the picture complete.

Keith brought us up to date with the golf tourney. 5 teams (so far) have said they would enter. He still needs youth players and Jessie has a meeting set up with some contact youth players. Keith's goal is to have 72 golfers. $5000+ has been raised from sponsors, so far. Details regarding the hole in one monitors are being worked on. The prize is $25,000 underwritten by an insurance company. Jessie is "pushing out" social meeting. Share-share-share Face Book posts.

Steve won the Bear ticket drawing....the Queen of Spades was the unlucky card.
